Chair and Coordinator: Prof. Dr. Yuji Iwahori, Chubu University, Japan iwahori@cs.chubu.ac.jp

Co-Chair:

Ph.D. Candidate Hiroyasu Usami, Chubu University, Japan usami@cvl.cs.chubu.ac.jp along with

PATTERNS 2018, The Tenth International Conferences on Pervasive Patterns and Applications February 18, 2018 to February 22, 2018 - Barcelona, Spain http://www.iaria.org/conferences2018/PATTERNS18.html

Computational vision system and application of pattern recognition have infiltrated into various fields as an important technology. Any processing systems by computers are designed as efficient as possible for the intelligent performances. Computational vision often seeks to actualize human vision system for the intelligent performances. Nowadays, these technologies enable to recognize two-dimensional patterns, inspect failure and quality of substrate, detect and track human motion, recover the 3D shape from input images et al. Then, application of pattern recognition bears an essential part of these technologies.

This session includes intelligent processing, artificial neural networks, an intelligent operation for the elearning, data mining and application, computational vision processing with learning approach and cognitive processing including actual applications of pattern recognition.

Topics of COVAPR 2018 encompass, but are not limited to:

- Computer vision
- Application of pattern recognition
- Pattern classification
- Feature detection and matching
- Object tracking
- Motion detection
- 3D Shape reconstruction
- Human computer interaction
